READERS' CHOICE AWARDS

BEST WORLD

IN THE

Perfection is rare in the world, but you found it. Our 23rd annual Readers' Choice Awards include 1,060 winners, elected by 25,916 readers whose passion is travel. The ratings are stratospheric: 281 places and properties achieve scores of 90.0 or above, from Art Nouveau palaces to South Pacific bungalows to one perfect jungle camp in Thailand

The friendliest city in the United States is Charleston, South Carolina (89.7).

Seven of the top 15 hotels in South America are in Argentina. 6 of them in Buenos Aires.

Vatican City has the world's highest culture/sites score—a whopping 97.5. The second highest? Rome, with a 97.2.

Hong Kong and Bangkok are this year's retail champs, earning the top two shopping scores among overseas cities.

Cape Town, South Africa, has the world's highest score for lodgings (87.0). So it's no surprise that the city is home to nine Readers' Choice Award winners.

Highest rated (95.3) in all of Greece, Perivolos has only 17 rooms, which also makes this Santorini gem the top Small Hotel in Europe.

IF CONSISTENCY IS A VIRTUE, then the winning hotels on this year's list have it in spades. Of the 15 regions highlighted here, four have repeat No. 1's: Il San Pietro di Positano (97.2), the 21c Museum Hotel in Louisville, Kentucky (97.7), the Lapa Rios Ecolodge on Costa Rica's Osa Peninsula (93.3), and the highest-rated hotel in the world, the Dominican Republic's Peninsula House (98.6). But consistency isn't the only virtue to emerge from this impressive roster. Of the 530 hotels on these pages, 80 began on our Hot List of the world's best new properties—and that includes multiple top scorers such as the Four Seasons Gresham Palace Budapest (95.0) and Le Franschhoek Hotel & Spa in South Africa (96.0). The trendsetting is even more pronounced in Asia, where 20 percent of the entire list consists of former Hot Listers, led by the formidable two-year-old Peninsula Tokyo (97.5).
